

SELF-PUBLISHING VS. TRADITIONAL? PIXELS OR PAPER?

A WRITERS GUIDE TO THE NEW WORLD OF PUBLISHING. As a writer, once you finish writing your book, fiction or non-fiction, should you try to have it published in the traditional way? Or self-publish it? What self-publishing used to signify, in status and profit, is rapidly changing. There now exists a new, complicated set of choices, many of them profitable, resulting in a tangible book, or an e-Book. Paper? Pixels? Or both? This book will help you decide, by examining what you expect to get from your publishing experience, and discussing the Paper or Pixel options. Understanding today's (ever-changing!) publishing world, and all the choices available in relation to who you are, and what you really want, need or expect for your book(s) is important. We also urge you as a writer to understand and keep up as this brave new world of publishing, as it keeps evolving. This book will give you an insight as to what is happening.
